

Benedictine University's Executive M.S. in Values-Driven Leadership Program

Elevate Your Leadership & Pursue Your Purpose

A Groundbreaking Program for Business Leaders & World Changers

Benchmarked against the best leadership development programs in the world, the new Executive M.S. in Values-Driven Leadership program is designed to equip you with the personal, organizational, and global competencies you need to lead with excellence and make a transformative impact on business and society.

Develop practical tools that are immediately applicable at work as you grow as a leader, expand your influence, pursue your purpose, and advance your career. Become part of a network of leaders, committed to a values-based approach to business, and prepare yourself for new executive leadership roles.

Target audience: The ideal student for this program is an accomplished leader with 8+ years of management experience.

Format: The EMSVDL program combines online courses with three transformative deep-dive residencies to connect you with like-minded leaders and lock-in your learning. Two residencies are held on Benedictine University's campus in Lisle, IL. The third residency is an international exchange, where you'll travel overseas to interact and network with business leaders and scholars from other countries and cultures.

Distinctives: The EMSVDL program offers you an opportunity to transform your leadership and your career through distinctive features such as:

- Learning & networking in a peer group of other high-capacity leaders.
- 10 personalized sessions with a professional coach, to help you chart your path and meet your career objectives.
- Hogan Leadership Assessments with a certified trainer, to help you gain fresh insights into your leadership capacity and potential.
- 100% of course faculty have earned their doctorates in values-driven leadership or a related field, and are also senior business leaders with real-world insight.
- A unique curriculum that integrates global leadership, strategic change, and personal leadership excellence all from a values-driven perspective.

Change your leadership, change your life

Program Overview: Benedictine University's New Executive Master's in Values-Driven Leadership

The Program, at a Glance

|                           |                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|---------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Target audience    | Proven leaders from the business, public, or non-profit sectors, with 8+ years experience                                                                                                                          |
| Curriculum focus   | Developing strategic leadership capacity to advance your career, pursue your purpose, and equip yourself for senior leadership roles                                                                               |
| Format             | Online with 3 face-to-face deep-dive residencies (4-6 days each), including one international trip                                                                                                                 |
| Peer group         | Other like-minded senior leaders                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Program length     | 18 months (cohort based)                                                                                                                                                                                           |
| Assessments        | Industry-leading Hogan Assessments with a certified trainer, plus more                                                                                                                                             |
| Executive coaching | Yes - 10 personalized sessions with an executive coach                                                                                                                                                             |
| Faculty with Ph.D. | 100%                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Class dates        | Campus residencies are Thursday evening through Sunday afternoon. A 6-day trip is planned for the international residency. For the online courses, set your own learning schedule in keeping with course deadlines |
| Total credit hours | 64                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Total courses      | 16                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Total tuition      | $60,000*                                                                                                                                                                                                          |

*Includes books. Tuition is based on 2017-2018 academic year estimates and may not include all student fees.

World-Class Curriculum

Following in the footsteps of our award-winning Ph.D./D.B.A. Program in Values-Driven Leadership, the EMSVDL coursework is based on our unique values-driven leadership competency model, which will help you think deeper and lead stronger at four levels: self, others, organizations, and society.

Additionally, coursework will help you grow in your understanding of global leadership, strategic change, and corporate sustainability and responsibility.

All courses are 6 weeks long. Courses that include residencies are noted with a "dagger" (†) below. The curriculum includes:

- Your Leadership Journey †
- Your Leadership Impact †
- Leadership Theory & Practice
- Moral & Ethical Foundations of Leadership
- Leading Teams
- Leading Change & Innovation
- Leading & Developing Others †
- Leading Appreciative Inquiry †
- Organizational Leadership Practicum
- Strategic Leadership
- Organizational Behavior
- Business Decision Making
- Responsible Leadership
- Global Leadership
- International Exchange †
- Leadership Legacy Capstone †

Find full course descriptions at cvdl.ben.edu/emsvdl.