

The Executive M.S. in Values-Driven Leadership Program

Think Deeper. Lead Stronger. Advance Your Career.

The Executive Master of Science in Values-Driven Leadership (EMSVDL) program is designed to equip you with the personal, interpersonal, and strategic organizational competencies you need to lead with excellence and make a transformative impact on business and society.

Benchmarked against the best leadership development programs in the world, this innovative program incorporates their most powerful features.

designed for accomplished leaders ...

This cohort-based, blended-format program can be completed in 18 months, through interactive online courses and three short residencies that integrate and deepen the learning experience. Two residencies are held on Benedictine University's Lisle, IL campus. The third residency is held at ITESO University in Mexico.

so you can elevate your impact ...

Our students take a variety of individual assessments to help them better understand themselves and how to develop their capacity to lead.

and advance your career.

In the EMSVDL program, you create a personalized leadership development plan and receive individualized executive coaching throughout the first 12 months of the program, to help you pursue your career objectives and make the impact you want.

Executive Master's in Values-Driven Leadership Program

Action-Based Learning

The EMSVDL program allows you to focus your learning on what interests you, and what will advance your career. Design and conduct action-learning projects to address problems and opportunities in your organization, under the guidance of Benedictine's executive faculty members. Find immediate value for your company and your career through these projects.

Values-Driven Leadership Competency Model

Built on our time-tested Values-Driven Leadership Competency Model, the program helps you look at every aspect of your leadership and the contribution you want to make to business and the world. Learn to apply evidence-based leadership theory, so you can develop your leadership capacity and reach your goals.

Is this program right for you?

This innovative program is for leaders and emerging leaders who want to develop their capacity to lead with excellence, and to have an even greater impact at the individual, team, organizational, and societal levels. It is also for people with advanced degrees, who want to strengthen their leadership capacity.
